

Civic and Global Leadership

---

Requirements for the Certificate in Civic and Global Leadership - Development and Human Capabilities Track

These courses expose students to the study of development and human capabilities, including the intersection of poverty and environmental protection, community mobilization, theories of development, political institutions and policies shaping poverty eradication, and economic models of development. Students learn about international, national, and local actors involved in development processes (e.g., states, the United Nations, microfinance organizations, non-governmental organizations, cultural groups) and explore issues affecting development and underdevelopment such as climate change, food production, human rights, and disease.

The certificate of curricular study requires successful completion of the following:

Code	Title	Semester Hours
CIVC 100	Introduction to Civic and Global Leadership	4
CIVC 400	Civic and Global Leadership Capstone	4
Select twelve hours representing a minimum of two disciplines from the from the following courses:		12
ANTH 317	The Anthropology of Development
ART 263	Intermediate Documentary Projects in Photography
BIOL 232	Human Health and the Environment (Lab)
ECON 310	Economic Development
ECON 311	Health and Development
ENST 101	Introduction to Environmental Studies
FORS 212	Forestry in the Developing World
POLS 280	The Politics of Development and Foreign Aid
POLS 321	Global Health Governance
Total Semester Hours		20