

Academic Year

---

The academic year is officially defined as encompassing the Advent (fall) and Easter (spring) semesters. For those who enroll in summer school, the academic credit is associated with the preceding terms as part of the same academic year.