

Approved Electives for the Master of Divinity Program

Students in the Master of Divinity program are required to take one three-semester hour elective in each of the following subjects: ethics, homiletics, and theology. Courses approved to satisfy these requirements are listed below.

Ethics

Code	Title	Semester Hours
CEMT 522	Contemporary Moral Issues	3
CEMT 554	Neighborhood Ethics	3
CEMT 558	The Theological Ethics of Stanley Hauerwas	3
CEMT 560	Environmental Ethics	3
CEMT 561	Climate Ethics	3
CEMT 562	Christian Social Ethics	3
CEMT 563	Sustainability as an Ethical Problem	3
CEMT 564	Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Theological Ethics	3
CEMT 565	Saints, Holiness, and Altruism	3

Homiletics

Code	Title	Semester Hours
HOML 510	Advanced Preaching: Rhetoric and Creative Proclamation	3
HOML 534	Parables and Preaching	3
HOML 540	African American Preaching	3
HOML 541	Preaching and Interpretation: Various Topics	3
HOML 542	Preaching and Justice	3
HOML 543	Preaching Women	3
HOML 544	Memory and Preaching: Engaging Place with Eucharistic Hope	3

Theology

Code	Title	Semester Hours
THEO 533	Readings in Contemporary Anglican Theology	3
THEO 551	Major Thinkers in Theology (depending upon context)	3
THEO 564	The Parish Priest as Public Theologian	3
THEO 565	The Ecumenical Imperative	3
THEO 568	The Story of Salvation	3